Subject:	New York Meeting List

Mr. Prime Minister,
Thank you for your reply.
If we could spend much of a day together in NYC, we would aim to have a few very high level meeting with leaders we know, work with and/or are courting.

We could build a very convenient schedule and potentially a very lucrative day - I think we could unearth a LOT of work and potential funding.

We would suggest a few private meetings with people like this:

@George and/or Jonathan Soros - George is a client and both their firms have been very interested in investing with us. We are in deep talks with both.

@Henry Kravis and Gen. Petraeus. KKR has been a happy client and Henry asked me to come in and brief them once Petraeus got on board.

@Peter Hancock. AIG, CEO of property and casualty. We've done some great work for Peter and he has some exciting proposals with us for a global security monitoring / travel product. This could be a huge opportunity to get a multi-year and large subscription.

@Hank Greenberg, CEO CV Starr (former AIG). Starr and Ergo have spent a lot of time together and they asked if we could build them a global intel collection platform.

@Lee Ainslie, CEO of Maverick. $8B hedge fund. Maverick has been considering being a $25-50M seed investor in our long/short geo-political fund. They are a premier name and love deep research.

@Jim Palotta- CEO Raptor ($1b+ fund), owner AS Roma and the Boston Celtics. Jim is a good frontier investor. He is interested in investing in our funds and getting deep intel.

If we had time, we could have a meal with three people like: Kevin Warsh (former Gov. Of the Fed and works for Druckenmiller), Ezra Zilka, Rick Gerson.

We'd make it am easy day and I think we could generate a lot of business.

Thanks for considering it,
RP
